

Community Needs Assessment

Education	Employment	Infrastructure	Housing
Funding for post secondary education and training	Availability of adequate and affordable childcare	Expanded transportation network	Affordable housing
Availability of adequate and affordable childcare	Access to transportation	Additional public community facilities	Home care education
Child behavioral concerns	Access to career coaching and placement assistance	Additional public recreational activities	Furnishings and household goods

Community Needs Assessment

Income and Asset Building	Food, Nutrition, and Agriculture	Health / Social and Behavioral Development	Civic Engagement and Community Involvement
Education on how to save and invest money	Affordable food options	Options for affordable health insurance	Opportunities to get involved in the community and local government
Anonymous and confidential budget counseling	Education on cooking, food preparation, and preservation	Affordable medication	Opportunities to join neighborhood associations, community boards, and advisory groups
Information on how to access financial resources	Access to healthy food options	Additional mental and behavioral professionals	Opportunities to volunteer